BILL C-60 THREATENS CBC'S INDEPENDENCE

	N LETTER TO THE PRIME MINI	STER	n pages 108	/109	n
OPEN LETTER TO about a proposal on proto tendent OPEN LETTER TO THE PRIME MINISTER We express deep concern about a proposal on pages 108/109 in Bill C-60 that would undermine the arms-length relationship between the CBC, our national public broadcaster, and the between the CBC, our national public broadcaster, and the between the CBC, our national public broadcaster.
We express deep undermine in broadcaster, and the Bill C-60 that would a stional public broader 1n	bin c the CBC, our nat
be	between the exercise of its powers, fo	federal government. federal government.
between the CBC, our matter of the objects and in the exercise of its powers, federal government. The Broadcasting Act states that the CBC "shall, in the pursuit of its objects and in the exercise of its powers, and journalistic, creative and programming independence". The Broadcasting Act states that the CBC on a par with its counterparts in other free and democratic countries. As you know, this statement places the CBC on a par with its counterparts in other free and democratic from government the cBC a public broadcaster – as opposed to a state broadcaster. Independence from government and the mandate for the cBC a public broadcaster – as opposed to a state broadcaster. Independence from government of the mandate for the state of the cBC a public broadcaster – as opposed to a state broadcaster. Independence from government of the mandate for the state of the cBC a public broadcaster – as opposed to a state broadcaster. Independence from government of the mandate for the state of the cBC a public broadcaster – as opposed to a state broadcaster. Independence from government of the mandate for The Broadcasting Act states that the CBC "shull, use and programming interparts of the Broadcasting Act states that the CBC and programming interparts in other free and democratic countries. enjoy freedom of expression and journalistic, creative and programming interparts in other free and democratic countries. As you know, this statement places the CBC on a par with its counterparts in other free and democratic countries. It is what makes the CBC a public broadcaster – as opposed to a state broadcaster. Independence from governmental is to reference is the key distinction between the two – throughout the world. riou freedom of expression and a name with its counterparts in the broadcaster. Independence its a en	is to the class the Cl	stor - as opposed to a state bit	rld.		6 -
А	s you know, this statement public broadc	aster the two – throughout the wo	- ont t	o set the man	date for
I	It is what makes the optimization between and As you know, this statement places the CBC on a part of a state protect. As you know, this statement places the CBC on a part of a state protect. It is what makes the CBC a public broadcaster – as opposed to a state protect. It is what makes the CBC a public broadcaster – as opposed to a state protect. It is what makes the CBC a public broadcaster – as opposed to a state protect. Bill C-60 proposes to amend the Financial Administration Act to permit the government to set the mandate for and audit CBC's collective bargaining, as well as give the government a veto over CBC's personnel, including its journalists, and audit CBC's collective bargaining, as well as give the effective employer of CBC's personnel, including its journalists, This means that the government would become the effective employer of CBC's personnel, including its journalist reducers and story editors.
	to amena the real	and as give the g	OI CDC F
	Bill C-60 proper	become the effective		tion C	onditions of allu adde i the governmently Bill C-60 proposes to alloc bargaining, as wereas so and audit CBC's collective bargaining, as wereas so and story endings and story editors. Such powers would intrude into the CBC's independence well beyond its employee groups. Such conditions currently work are an integral part of CBC's collective agreements with its various employee groups. Such conditions of conditions are an integral part of CBC's collective agreements national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster, as required under the provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster as a provide assurance of the integrity of CBC as an independent national public broadcaster as a provide assure that as a provide assure that as a provide assure that as an independent public broadcast is intrude into the CBC's independents with its various of a storad caster, as require Such powers would include a collective agreed and and a provide a second p work are an integral per	,BC as the provide assurance of	a segments ens	ure that:		1 momoved filling Broadcasting Act.	BC's collective agreement	•	Dradificels
For example, conditions of work
	 Journalists cannot be pulled off assignments without good reason. 	employment, as a result of reporting employment, as a result of reporting agree with its content or form.
	assignmente	the news.		agree
	• CBC is required to protect the				intorest - CBC is required to protect the authority of producers over the authority of producers over the content, form and budget of a program. Were Bill C-60 to pass without amendment, any government could change such provisions in its own interest – were at cost to Canadian democracy.
	authority of particular authority of program content,	nendment, any governing		i imont	of its CEO Content, formation Were Bill C-60 to pass without amendment, any government construction Were Bill C-60 to pass without amendment, any government construction State of the second se at great cost to Canadian de
	The federal government already has more than ample inneon and Board of Directors, and the allocation of its federal grant.
	The federal government of Directors, and the allocation of the terms that Bill C-00 Do and Dourt
	 We read cost to Canadian determination at great cost to Canadian determination The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influence over Obert The federal government already has more than ample influen
	to remove an refer				TO NOER
					JOE SCHLESINGER CBC foreign correspondent
	Yours sincerely,		DONNA LOGAN Founding Director an	d Professor	emeritus
	100-	BERNARD DEROME	Founding Director an Emerita, UBC Gradua	ate School of
	PAUL ADAMS	lournaliste	lournalisti		IVOR SHAPIRO Chair and Associate Professor,
	Associate Professor, Associate Associate Associate Associate Professor,	MAURICE GODIN	DON NEWMAN	CM	School of Journaity
	Carleton School a	MAURICE GODIN Ex-journaliste SRC, membre-à-vie Tribune de la presse parlementaire	DON NEWMAN Senior Parliamenta CBC Television Nev	ry Editor us (1988 - 2009)	Rverson University and Communication Former parliamentary reporter, Former Parliamentary	Tribune de la presso pa Ottawa	CBC IElevision		STEPHEN J. A. WARD
	Former parliamentary reported CBC-TV; former Parliamentary Bureau Chief, CBC Radio	COLEMAN	AL AIN SAULN	ER	Director, La for Journalism
	Bureau Chief, OD	NOREEN GOL Studies	ALAIN SAULIN Ancien DG des ser	C (2006 - 2012)	Turnbull Centre for Source School of Journalism and

TONY BURMAN Former head CBC News and Al Jazeera English

Memorial University SARAH SCHMIDT Former Postmedia News reporter

PATRICK BROWN

Professeur invité, Université d'I Montréal, DESS en journalisme

FLORIAN SAUVAGEAU Directeur, Centre d'études sur les medias, Université Laval Communication University of Oregon – Portland

HUGH WINSOR Life member, Parliamentary Press Gallery, columnist emeritus, Globe and Mail

friends.ca/FreeCBC