

A Valentine's Day message to Prime Minister Harper:

78%

of Canadians use the CBC each week.*

81%

of Canadians believe that CBC is one of the things that distinguishes Canada from the United States.*

Canadians of all political stripes love the CBC.

Public broadcasting is a force that can and should be the lifeblood of our democracy and the glue that holds our country together.

When your Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Canadian Heritage mused recently that "maybe it's time we get out of the broadcasting business" we were shocked, as would be the Conservative Prime Minister who first introduced public broadcasting to Canada.

Now that your government is negotiating closer ties with the United States, building Canadian public broadcasting is more important than ever before.

Almost 100,000 Canadians have already signed the "I LOVE CBC" petition.
